Abstract.

TEXTILES - Cotton Cloth and Yarn (Control) Order, 1945 - Fixation of ceiling prices for cloth produced by powerloom factories in Madras Province - Decontrol Orders - Issued.

DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT.

G.O.Ms.No.301. Dated the 22nd January 1948.

Read: From the Textile Commissioner, Bombay, TCS/10(c) D.16 12-47, dated 16-12-1947.
From the Provincial Textile Commissioner, RC. 54514 G 1/45, dated 12-1-48 and 16-1-48.

ORDER:

The Textile Commissioner, Bombay, in his letter cited above, has intimated to the Power Loom Factories that he would no longer fix the ceiling ex-factory and retail prices for cloth produced on power-looms but that those factories would have to stamp prices if the Provincial and State Governments so order. The Provincial Textile Commissioner, Madras has recommended to the Government that the control over the prices of cloth produced by powerloom factories in this Province may be given up immediately. The Government accept the recommendation of the Provincial Textile Commissioner subject to the condition that the powerloom factories should be required to stamp the words 'Powerloom factory' below the manufacturer's name on all prices of cloth produced by them. The Provincial Textile Commissioner is requested to take necessary action in the matter.
